TENNESSEE BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION ADDS KNOXVILLE WOMAN TO STATE'S TOP TEN MOST WANTED LIST

Nashville, Tenn. – The Tennessee Bureau of Investigation today added a Knoxville, Tenn. woman to the state's Top Ten Most Wanted List after she failed to report to the Union County Jail after pleading guilty on two charges last month.

Laura Leva Mae Blair, 29, last known address 205 Bently Street, Knoxville, Tenn. is wanted by the Union County Sheriff's Office for felony failure to appear. Blair was scheduled to report to the Union County Jail on November 12, 2012 after pleading guilty on October 9, 2012 to reckless homicide and facilitation of especially aggravated kidnapping. On May 19, 2011, Blair and three other co-defendants kidnapped 45-year-old Lisa Young, shot her in the back and left her body near the intersection of Bull Run Road and Highway 370 in Union County. Two of those co-defendants, Natisha Davis, 24, and Trina Littlejohn, 29, were on the TBI Top Ten Most Wanted list In June of 2011 when warrants were taken out for their arrests after the murder.

Blair has a criminal history dating back to 2001 that includes vandalism, aggravated assault, probation violation, driving on a suspended license and especially aggravated kidnapping.

Blair is described as a black female with black hair and brown eyes. She is 5'4" and weighs approximately 250 lbs. Anyone with information on the whereabouts of Laura Leva Mae Blair is urged to call the TBI at 1-800-TBI-FIND. There is a $1,000 reward for information leading to her arrest.
